What you should know about Paddle for the Cure

Paddle for the Cure is a not-for-profit organization supported, for the most part, by the generosity of individuals, corporations and foundations. In order to sustain our unique program, Paddle for the Cure Board Members, staff and volunteers work hard to build a financial foundation that allows us to continue to offer our program to members with $10 cost of training per session and support our special community in many ways – by referring people living with cancer to our dragonboat team , in-kind donations, and contributions. We welcome their support and the support of their friends.

Would you like to receive information about ways you can help Paddle for the Cure
